

PRESIDENT COMER BURIED.

President of Central of Georgia Railroad and Prominent Georgian.

SAVANNAH. Feb. 27.—The funeral of Mr. H. M. Comer, president of the Central railway and the Ocean Steamship company, took place this morning. It was largely attended. The shops and offices of the Central were closed during the morning.

The death of Mr. Comer removes from Savannah one of its most prominent citizens. For over 50 years his name had been a familiar one in the business circles of the city.

If he was shrewd and sagacious in business enterprises, his integrity was unquestioned and his financial success was due to his sound ability and not to unfair methods and unscrupulous practices.

The deceased was a splendid type of the success of American business man.

Plain, straightforward and fearless, his success was due to his own ability and business sagacity, and not to the aid of others.

Unpretentious and unassuming in manner, he preferred the quiet of his own home life to any pleasure which the outside world could offer, and was best known where he was best loved.

He was born in Jones county, Ga., Sept. 1, 1842.

Kidney disease is the enemy we have most to fear as a result of the feverish restlessness of our much vaunted modern civilization. It is a treacherous enemy, working out its deadly effect under cover of the most trifling symptoms. The first indication of changes of the urine, frequent headaches, digestive troubles, should be the signal for prompt medical measures. PRICKLY ASH BITTERS is a kidney remedy of superlative merit; it is soothing, healing and strengthening, quickly relieves the aching or soreness that always appears in the advanced stages, checks the progress of the disease and through its excellent cleansing and regulating effect on the stomach, liver and bowels, it brings back the strength and ruddy glow of vigorous health.
